For more than 30 years, King Core has possessed professional knowledge of magnetic materials, formulas of ferrite core powder, and process know-how. Continuously committed to combating electromagnetic interferences (EMI), the Company actively pursues research and development initiatives, fostering innovation in product and technology realms. This steadfast dedication has solidified King Core's authoritative reputation as a premier solution provider for EMI challenges within the industry. It provides special product services for companies and research organizations which have EMI/EMC problems for solving. The specific R&D results include various sizes of ferrite cores and chip beads for EMI solutions, Multilayer, Wire-wound Inductors, Chip Bead and Common Mode Filters, and Wire-wound Power Inductors, etc. suitable for various frequency bands. Simultaneously, we have made significant strides in advancing wireless charging technologies, formulating electromagnetic wave shielding materials, and addressing high-frequency antenna requirements, catering to the specific needs of our clientele by delivering tailored solutions in these areas.

In addition to traditional nickel-zinc ferrite materials, our wire-wound power inductors incorporate high-current alloy materials and advanced magnetic resin shielded construction technologies. This enables us to customize solutions tailored to various circuit design requirements, including dimensions ranging from 2.0mm to 10mm and a wide range of inductance values from 0.1uH to 1000mH in response to customer demands. Our products cater to diverse applications, from general commercial portable consumer electronics, computer, and communication products to industrial computer servers and fixed power system modules, for purposes such as voltage regulation, voltage conversion, and bucket-boosting. We have developed a comprehensive range of products, and through material and process optimization, and have successfully met the stringent AEC-Q200 automotive electronics requirements.

The Company has long been dedicated to the development of common-mode filters, leveraging in-house production of ferrite cores and optimizing size designs and wire-wound mechanisms to enhance versatility. We cater to various module requirements for high-pass, low-pass, and band-pass filtering applications, spanning frequencies from several hundred kHz to several hundred MHz to dozens of GHz, which are tailored to the needs of various generations of HDMI2.0/USB3.2 applications. By leveraging the Company's expertise in core material and winding technology, as well as multilayer chip inductor technologies, the Company actively pursues the development of more advanced HDMI 2.1/USB4 communication protocol requirements.

In recent years, to meet the demands of customers from mainland China and Europe, we have actively leveraged our proprietary ferrite core materials and innovative wire-wound techniques to develop common-mode filters that comply with the 100BASE-T1 and 1000BASE-T1 specifications of the OPEN Alliance for in-vehicle Ethernet communication protocols. These filters not only fulfill frequency requirements ranging from 1MHz to 1GHz but also undergo optimization of materials and equipment processes to ensure reliability and productivity at automotive-grade levels. Additionally, our products meet the stringent AEC-Q200 standard, positioning them as reliable components in the burgeoning automotive electronics and IoT industries, serving the needs of high-speed growth in these sectors.

In the spirit of excellence, we will continue to improve our technology and capabilities in equipment automation, magnetic material specialization, and product manufacturing technology management and continue to strive to improve product characteristics and reliability to meet various needs of customers.

II. Summary of 2024 Business Plan

(I) Operational guidelines

In 2022, the demand for parts and components saw a drastic reversal of demand. Interrelated factors such as the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic, strict lockdown measures in Mainland China, the war between Russia and Ukraine, geopolitics, decoupling from China, and climate change will continue to transform the global supply chain and the market demand will continue to fluctuate significantly. In 2023, as the pandemic began to subside, the economy faced sluggish growth, leading to subdued demand in the ICT industry. Customers managed their inventory levels cautiously, resulting in a significant downturn in procurement activities. Thanks to King Core's long-term strategic planning and concerted efforts, demand from automotive electronics and certain segments of smart home appliances remained stable amidst the challenging economic environment. The Company continued to invest in the development of materials and RF components for automotive electronics, underscoring its commitment to this sector.

In response to the many changes in the macro environment, King Core continues to invest in Taiwan and expand its investment in Taiwan. In the third quarter of 2023, construction commenced on a new powder material production line and facility for magnetic core materials at the Company's Pingzhen Plant in Taoyuan, Taiwan. The production capacity of the powder material is designed to reach 300 metric tons per month, with mass production expected to commence in Q3 2024. By mitigating external disruptions to material supply and production processes, King Core ensures stability and reliability in its Taiwan-based supply chain and manufacturing operations. This strategy aims to instill confidence and satisfaction in customers, fostering stronger and deeper trust and collaboration with King Core.

King Core adheres to the principle that continuous research and development innovation is essential to grasp market trends, ensuring the Company's long-term and sustainable growth. We aspire to achieve growth in performance and profitability in the upcoming year through these efforts.

The solar power generation equipment set up by the Pingzhen Plant of the Company generated 471,269KWH power in total in 2023 and its cumulative power generation was up to 3,235,487KWH. This suggests that carbon emissions will be reduced by 1,699,101t when 5,628,688trees are planted and NT$18,397 thousand will be earned from solar power generation. In the development of new energies, the Company will strengthen its contributions and efforts.

King Core's management team focuses its operations on the core principle of "identifying and fully satisfying customer needs". Continuously attuned to market demand fluctuations and future development trends, we actively collaborate and exchange ideas with various technical units to develop new materials and products. We aim to offer the most comprehensive product lineup, ensuring we meet the diverse needs of customers and the expectations of stakeholders. Additionally, we are committed to energy conservation, carbon reduction, environmental friendliness, employee welfare, fulfilling social responsibilities, and enhancing corporate governance. Building upon our core foundation in magnetic materials technology, King Core is committed to continuously strengthening our competitive advantage. With steady progress and determination, we are confident in achieving outstanding results, thus fulfilling our commitment to our shareholders' long-term trust and support and ensuring sustainable business operations.

(II) Expected sales quantity and basis

The Company's expected sales quantity in 2024 is as follows:

| Main products | Sales quantity (thousand pcs) |
|-----------------|-------------------------------|
| Ferrite cores | 145,000 |
| Chip inductors | 685,000 |
| Precision coils | 85,850 |

Estimation basis:

- (A) Ferrite cores: We anticipate continued demand for EMI ferrite cores used in smart home appliances, automotive electronics, networking and IoT products, power supply, automation and industrial equipment products. The Company will strengthen differentiation of ferrite cores, promote among foreign customers and keep informative about supply of raw materials. It is expected that sales of ferrite cores would be conservative in 2024.
- (B) Chip inductors: The demands for smart home appliances, automotive electronics, information products, network communication and IoT products, power supply products, industrial computers and chip inductors will gradually increase with the demands for new-generation intelligent products. Therefore, the Company continues to actively expand the sales of High Power Bead/Inductor products and the mass production sales of new ultra-thin ferrite products in chip processes. It is expected that sales of chip inductors would be conservative in 2024.
- (C) Precision coils: The Company will strengthen the application development, market promotion and sales of automotive electronics, information products, network communication and IOT products, power supply products, and industrial computer products. Adjust customer portfolio and product portfolio, increase automotive electronics applications, and aim to increase profitability. For the fiscal year 2024, we aim for conservative growth projections in sales of coil-related products.

(III) Vital production and sales policies

In order to achieve the above goals, the production and marketing policies we have adopted include: (1) Continuously increase productivity, increase automation, and reduce costs to fully grasp customers and the market. (2) Continue to upgrade manufacturing capacity, introduce AI equipment, increase production flexibility, and fully satisfy customer needs. (3) Actively develop new products and improve product reliability testing to meet the diversified needs of customers. (4) Actively develop niche products and markets, in order that the Company will become a comprehensive manufacturer of inductive products.

III. The development strategy of the future

The Company will pursue an active and stable growth strategy by recruiting professional talents and exploring new products and markets. We aim to establish the Company as a leader in the industry.

As a global corporate citizen, King Core is committed to the implementation of various environmental protection, energy saving, and waste reduction initiatives, as well as the fulfillment of corporate responsibility and improvement of corporate governance. In addition to the installation of photovoltaic power generation facilities at the Taoyuan Pingzhen plant, the Company continues to promote various ESG-related activities.

IV. The effect of the external competitive, legal, and macroeconomic environment

- 1. 1. Products of the Company mainly include inductive elements, which are used for suppressing electromagnetic interferences, completing magnetic and wave filtration and converting waveforms. These years, governments of countries have attached more and more importance to electromagnetic interferences of electronic products. With constant increase in computing speed of related products such as electric vehicles, IoT, AI, 5G, intelligence home appliances, industrial equipment, medical devices and game machines, there has been growing demand for suppression of electromagnetic interferences and inductive elements. In addition, lifecycles of electronic products have become increasingly shorter. Swift changes occur to products and specifications. Because of this trend, the Company has obtained more and more opportunities. Meanwhile, it has faced greater challenges. To embrace these challenges, the Company has built a more powerful management team for improving its performances in different aspects such as research, development, manufacturing, sales and finance. Believe that the Company will get opportunities of business growth.
- 2. Effects of China-US trade wars upon supply chains and increasingly more stringent requirements of Mainland China policies for Taiwan companies in Mainland China affect and create opportunities for the Company's sales and channel layout. ESG-related issues such as energy saving and carbon reduction, environmental protection, corporate social responsibility and corporate governance have increasingly gained widespread attention, and the competent authorities and clients have correspondingly increased their requirements on related issues. Clients require high quality, fast delivery, regulatory compliance and R&D capabilities. In Taiwan, issues on labor force, personnel cost, environmental protection and energy utilization have become more and more complicated. How to strike a balance among quality, production capacity, friendly environment and profit and activate assets of the Company to maximize shareholders' benefits will be a serious issue that the Company has to strive to settle through persistent efforts.
- 3. Looking ahead to 2024, uncertainties brought about by trade wars, climate change, regional conflicts, inflation, and rising costs are expected to persist. However, amidst these challenges, opportunities arise in sectors such as smart home appliances, automotive electronics, green energy, information and communication technology products, industrial computers, and medical equipment. King Core possesses proprietary magnetic materials technology and has expanded into the production and development of multi-layer chip and precision coils, and can provide customers with complete solutions in electromagnetic compatibility and inductive components. The Company will continuously develop new products and specifications according to target customers' needs. It will seize opportunities for promotion and market development. It will implement complete quality rules, constantly improve mass production technologies and supply raw materials, in order to become the customers' best partner providing countermeasures for suppressing electromagnetic shield and creating value for its shareholders.

At last, heartfelt gratitude is hereby expressed to all of you for your cordial contributions, long-term support and encouragement. The most esteemed respect is hereby extended to all of you! Best wishes!

We would like to give you our best regards for the future ahead.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To The Board of Directors and Shareholders of King Core Electronics Inc. :

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying parent-company-only balance sheets of King Core Electronics Inc. (the "Company") as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the related parent-company-only statements of comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows for the years then ended, and notes to the parent-company-only financial statements, including the summary of material accounting policies (together referred as "the parent-company-only financial statements").

In our opinion, based on the results of our audits and the report of other auditors (please refer to the Other Matter—Making Reference to the Audit of Other Auditor section of our report), the parent-company-only financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the parent-company-only financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and their parent-company-only financial performance and cash flows for the years then ended, in conformity with the requirements of the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with the Regulations Governing Financial Statement Audit and Attestation Engagements of Certified Public Accountants and the Standards on Auditing of the Republic of China. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Parent-Company-Only Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Norm of Professional Ethics for Certified Public Accountant of the Republic of China (the "Norm"), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Norm. Based on our audits and the report of other auditors, we believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of the most significance in our audit of 2023 parent-company-only financial statements. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the parent-company-only financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognized NT$451,552 thousand as revenue for the year ended December 31, 2023. The Company has conducted these sale activities in multi-marketplace, including Taiwan, China, Europe, etc. Among these locations, the Company has established foreign hub-warehouse for certain foreign customers' convenience. Furthermore, the timing of fulfilling performance obligation needs to be determined based on varieties of sale terms and conditions enacted in the main sale contracts or sale orders. We therefore conclude that there are significant risks with respect to the topic of revenue recognition.

Our audit procedures therefore include, but not limit to, evaluating the properness of accounting policy for revenue recognition, assessing and testing the effectiveness of relevant internal controls related to revenue recognition, sampling-test of details, including checking the revenue recognition from foreign hub-warehouses, obtaining major sale orders or agreements to inspect the terms and conditions, checking the consistency of the fulfillment timing, performing analytical review procedures on monthly sale revenues, and executing sale cut-off tests, etc. We have also evaluated the appropriateness of the related disclosure in Note 4 and 6 to the financial statements.

Other Matter – Making Reference to the Audit of Other Auditor

We did not audit the financial statements of Allied Biotech Corp., an invested associate accounted for using the equity method by the Company. The financial statements of Allied Biotech Corp. as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and for the years then ended were audited by other auditors, whose reports thereon have been furnished to us. Our audit, insofar as it related to the investment in the associate accounted for using the equity method amounting to NT$254,569 thousand and NT$258,283 thousand as of December 31, 2023 and 2022 representing 12.02% and 11.13% of the Company's total assets, the related shares of income before tax from the associate under the equity method for the years then ended amounting to NT$18,352 thousand and NT$27,660 thousand representing 20.94% and 11.88% of the Company's income before tax, and the related shares of other comprehensive income from the associate under the equity method for the years then ended amounting to NT$(720) thousand and NT$417 thousand, representing (4.30)% and (5.74)% of the other comprehensive income, respectively.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Parent-Company-Only Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the parent-company-only financial statements in accordance with the requirements of the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of parent-company-only financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the parent-company-only financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the ability to continue as a going concern of the Company, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance, including audit committee, are responsible for overseeing the financial reporting process of the Company.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Parent-Company-Only Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the parent-company-only financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Standards on Auditing of the Republic of China will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these parent-company-only financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing of the Republic of China, we exercise professional judgment and professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- 1. Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the parent-company-only financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- 2. Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the internal control of the Company.
- 3. Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- 4. Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the ability to continue as a going concern of the Company. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditors' report to the related disclosures in the parent-company-only financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditors' report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.

- 5. Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the parent-company-only financial statements, including the accompanying notes, and whether the parent-company-only financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- 6. Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Company to express an opinion on the parent-company-only financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the company audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of 2023 parent-company-only financial statements and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To: The Board of Directors and Shareholders of King Core Electronics Inc.

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of King Core Electronics Inc. (the "Company") and its subsidiaries as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the related consolidated statements of comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows for the years then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including the summary of material accounting policies (together referred as "the consolidated financial statements").

In our opinion, based on the results of our audits and the report of other auditors (please refer to the Other Matter—Making Reference to the Audit of Other Auditor section of our report), the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the Company and its subsidiaries as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and their consolidated financial performance and cash flows for the years then ended, in conformity with the requirements of the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers and International Financial Reporting Standards, International Accounting Standards, Interpretations developed by the International Financial Reporting Interpretations Committee or the former Standing Interpretations Committee as endorsed by Financial Supervisory Commission of the Republic of China.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with the Regulations Governing Financial Statement Audit and Attestation Engagements of Certified Public Accountants and the Standards on Auditing of the Republic of China. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company and its subsidiaries in accordance with the Norm of Professional Ethics for Certified Public Accountant of the Republic of China (the "Norm"), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Norm. Based on our audits and the report of other auditors, we believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

- 33 -

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of 2023 consolidated financial statements. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Revenue Recognition

The Company and its subsidiaries recognized NT$544,602 thousand as revenue for the year ended December 31, 2023. The Company and its subsidiaries have conducted these sale activities in multi-marketplace, including Taiwan, China, and Europe, etc. Among these locations, the Company has established foreign hub-warehouse for certain foreign customers' convenience. Furthermore, the timing of fulfilling performance obligation needs to be determined based on varieties of sale terms and conditions enacted in the main sale contracts or sale orders. We therefore conclude that there are significant risks with respect to the topic of revenue recognition. Our audit procedures therefore include, but not limit to, evaluating the properness of accounting policy for revenue recognition, assessing and testing the effectiveness of relevant internal controls related to revenue recognition, sampling-test of details, including checking the revenue recognition from foreign hub-warehouses, obtaining major sale orders or agreements to inspect the terms and conditions, checking the consistency of the fulfillment timing, and performance obligation for revenue recognition with sale agreement or orders, performing analytical review procedures on monthly sale revenues, executing sale cut-off tests, etc. We have also evaluated the appropriateness of the related disclosure in Notes 4 and 6 to the consolidated financial statements.

Other Matter – Making Reference to the Audit of Other Auditor

We did not audit the financial statements of Allied Biotech Corp., an invested associate accounted for using the equity method by the Group. The financial statements of Allied Biotech Corp as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and for the years then ended were audited by other auditor, whose report thereon has been furnished to us. Our audit, insofar as it related to the investment in the associate accounted for using the equity method amounting to NT$254,569 thousand and NT$258,238 thousand as of December 31, 2023 and 2022 representing 11.99% and 11.07% of the Company's consolidated total assets, the related shares of income before tax from the associate under the equity method for the years then ended amounting to NT$18,352 thousand and NT$27,660 thousand representing 20.86% and 11.85% of the Company's consolidated income before tax, and the related shares of other comprehensive income from the associate under the equity method for the years then ended amounting to NT$(720) thousand and NT$417 thousand representing (4.30)% and(5.74)% of the other comprehensive income, respectively.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with the requirements of the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers and International Financial Reporting Standards, International Accounting Standards, Interpretations developed by the International Financial Reporting Interpretations Committee or the former Standing Interpretations Committee as endorsed by Financial Supervisory Commission of the Republic of China and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the ability to continue as a going concern of the Company and its subsidiaries, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company and its subsidiaries or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance, including audit committee or supervisors, are responsible for overseeing the financial reporting process of the Company and its subsidiaries.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Standards on Auditing of the Republic of China will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing of the Republic of China, we exercise professional judgment and professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- 1. Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- 2. Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the internal control of the Company and its subsidiaries.
- 3. Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- 4. Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the ability to continue as a going concern of the Company and its subsidiaries. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditors' report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditors' report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company and its subsidiaries to cease to continue as a going concern.

- 5. Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the accompanying notes, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- 6. Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Company and its subsidiaries to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of 2023 consolidated financial statements and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Others

We have audited and expressed an unqualified opinion including an Other Matter Paragraph on the parent-company-only financial statements of the Company as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and for the years then ended.
